A GROWING NEWSPAPER IN A GROWING COMMUNITY

Volume 52, Number 50 — CAMPBELL, SANTA CLARA COUNTY, CALIFORNIA — Thursday, November 6, 1947

The frost is on the pumpkin and we're getting our hand in practice for that Thanksgiving pie. (Hand Granny her shawl: these nights are right nippy!)

Our Town

By Peggy Blanchard

No scarcity of news confronts the local reader this week.—

And plans for the building of a new $3 million O'Connor Hospital lead the list of important doings here at home.

O'Connor's proposed new home pictured on this page today—will continue and expand the tradition of the present hospital, serving patients regardless of race, creed of circumstance. Adequate hospital facilities are both an individual need of utmost importance to residents of Santa Clara county and a necessary addition to our fine public-health program.

Harry and I are proud to be associated through this paper with the chairman of this splendid project and wish the Hospital campaign every and early success.

Meeting the attractive women who form Campbell's Country Women's club as a guest at their tea Monday afternoon, I understood how their enthusiasm and team work combined to make their club house a reality. Their clubhouse is a true community center and they can't be congratulated too often on building and sharing it.

•

Those are mighty cheerful sounds, too, upstairs in the IOOF hall of an evening. Music, speeches, drill work and the wholesome buzz of chatter at refreshment time come floating down to us in the Press office in tantalizing snatches as local organizations gather for their meetings.

So the Romanoffs have journeyed from Campbell to London to see the Princess Elizabeth and her Prince be married. I have to admit to a thrill of interest to think that their Campbell cousins will actually witness that much-discussed ceremony.

Prince and Princess Vasili are not listed in the local telephone directory, by the way, but we have a San Francisco reporter's word for it that they live here.

Mr. Givens. this is my second chance to use your name correctly —(go easy there, Les!) Thanks again for your letter about Halloween. I hope Campbell parents took your kindly worthwhile suggestions.

•

Bright prospects for gala decorations up and down Campbell's main streets at Christmas time are all set now. Local businessmen have subscribed more than enough to purchase special Holiday lighting. We'll have the Chamber of Commerce to thank for it—especially L. E. Garcia who under took the difficult job of asking for the money.

•

Drew Pearson's opinions in this paper are strictly his own, most Thursdays. But today I'll have to stand up and add a big "here here" to his remarks about the American people and their respones to human need throughout the world. Besides, those are grateful words to those midwestern ears, now grafted to the California mountainside.

WEEKEND VISITORS

Capt. and Mrs. J. Hugh Rincon and baby Sandy spent the weekend with Mrs. Rincon's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Peck of 141 N. 1st street.

Schools To Close Monday, Tuesday

Students of Campbell Union High and Grammar schools will enjoy a four day holiday over the week-end, with the schools remaining closed Monday and Tuesday in observance of Armistice day.

O'Connor Hospital Building Fund Drive For Pledges Gains Momentum

O'Connor Hospital in San Jose, which draws patients from Campbell and 20 other communities, today was embarked on an active valley-wide campaign to raise funds towards a new hospital with facilities for 300 patients.

The new O'Connor's will be an eight-story, modern, Grade A, general hospital. It will not be a remodeling of the old hospital or a wing, but will be a separate new building erected on the O'Connor grounds south of the present hospital.

The new hospital will cost $3,000,000, but the public will be asked to raise only a part of this sum. The Sisters of Charity, a religious order whose members administer O'Connor's, will match, dollar for dollar, any sum between $1,000,000 and $1,500,000 subscribed by the general public.

David C. Kirby, San Jose attorney, has accepted chairmanship of the central committee of the campaign with a quota of $1,000,000.

"Minimum goal of the whole campaign is $1,000,000, and this is the target central committee is shooting at," Kirby said. "However, it is the hope of the executive committee that the public subscription will reach $1,500,000. With a matching subscription from the Sisters, the whole $3,000,000 for the new building then would be provided."

After a meeting of central committee Tuesday, Kirby said "We're off to a flying start. The response we are meeting in recruitment of workers is very heartening. I expect to have central committee's full complement of 200 workers before the week is out."

O'Connor Hospital was founded in 1889 by Judge and Mrs. M. P. O'Connor, and has been administered ever since by the Daughters of Charity of St. Vincent de Paul, who usually are known as Sisters of Charity. Sister Berenice is the Superior and hospital administrator.

Although O'Connor's has served the public for 58 years without regard to race, creed, color or economic status of its patients, the hospital today is forced to turn patients away every day because of the acute shortage of beds.

Medical cases who need hospitalization badly are crowded out by surgical cases, and surgical operations are cancelled frequently even after they have been scheduled. Only patients sure of admission to the hospital are emergencies, and even these cases often lie on stretchers for hours before empty beds can be found.

"The need for more hospital facilities for this community is desperate," Dr. Leon P. Fox, chief of staff, said today.

Health authorities say five beds per thousand is the minimum for health and safety, and on this basis, Santa Clara County, with its 205,000 population, should have a minimum of 1025 hospital beds..

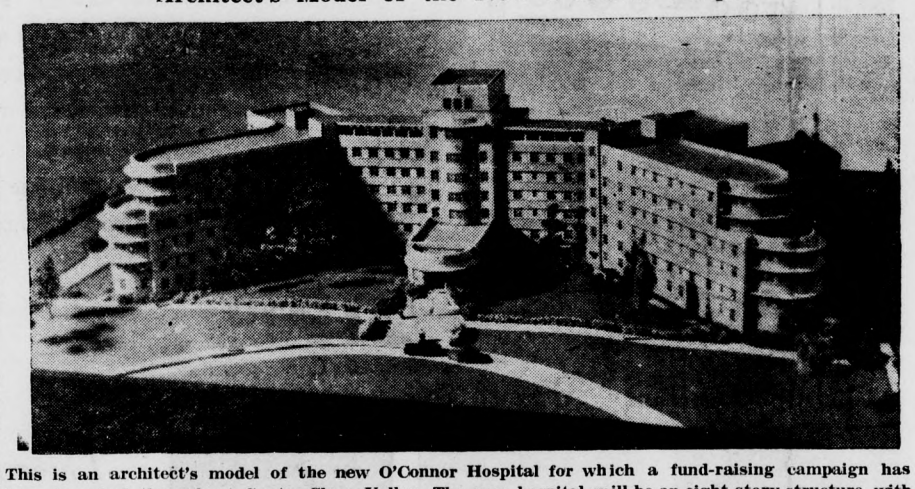
Actually, the three general hospitals in this area provide 665 beds, leaving a minimum need of 360. O'Connor's has now 120 beds, plus 25 bassinets for the new-born.

Plans for the fund-raising campaign have been laid at a series of meetings of the executive committee this summer and fall. General campaign chairman is Patrick H. Peabody, valley publisher.

Members of the executive committee include Sister Berenice, Kirby, Dr. Fox, Robert F. Benson, A. R. Bower, John M. Burnett, Dr. S. V. Campisi, Arthur Carmichael, John McEnery, Edward V. McIntosh, J. M. O'Keeffe, Dr. M. E. Pickworth, Dr. E. O. G. Schmitt and Dr. John Hunt Shephard.

Central committee majors are Irvin A. Frasse, Paul T. Gallagher, Luke A. Kelly, S. L. LoBue, Everett D. Myers, Charles A. O'Brien, Jr., Jerry M. O'Brien, F. H. Seelig, Roger R. Williams and A. N. Winterling.

Architect's Model of the New O'Connor Hospital



This is an architect's model of the new O'Connor Hospital for which a fund-raising campaign has been launched throughout Santa Clara Valley. The new hospital will be an eight-story structure, with facilities for 300 patients, to be built on the O'Connor grounds south of the present hospital.

Don't Forget "Believe It or Not" Friday Night

The curtain will rise Friday night, 8:15 p. m. in the Campbell Union high school auditorium on the Footlighters production of "Believe It Or Not."

Advance sales by members of the Campbell Garden Club indicate a sell-out for the hilarious performance which is under the direction of Dean Chamberlain.

The lead comedy roles are being played by LBen Howard and Marion Nelson, and a good evening of fun for the whole family is being promised by all members of the cast.

Camp Fire Girls Sell Xmas Cards

One hundred boxes of Christmas cards were sold last week by members of the Odako Camp Fire group led by Mrs. G. K. Schrader. High point girl was Elizabeth Atkinson with 25 boxes to her credit.

New members of this group are Eleanor Addison, Katherine Beard, Nancy Lee Davis, Barbara Perry and Louise Plymale.

An old couch or settee is badly wanted for the Camp Fire Girls' room at the Youth Center. Anyone wishing to donate one is asked to please phone Mrs. D. W. Ribble.

Whist Party Saturday Night

A turkey whist party will be held Saturday evening, Nov. 8, at the Napredak hall on Lawrence road by members of St. Joseph's parish of Cupertino.

Co-chairmen Mrs. A. Ravizza and Mrs. A. Saich announce that all arrangements are complete and that a turkey is waiting for the high score card holders.

General Meeting W.S.C.S. Nov. 13

A general meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Campbell Methodist church will convene in the church parlors at 10:30 a. m. Thursday, Nov. 13.

Since there will be no separate circle meetings this month it is hoped that every member possible will be present, as final arrangements for the bazaar to be held Thursday Nov. 20, must be completed.

Mrs. Guy Farley, president, will preside at the business session. Mrs. R. E. Schaefle will speak on "An Orderly World for Our Children."

A twelve o'clock luncheon will be served by the Harmony Circle under the direction of Mrs. James Gleed.

Community Chest Goal Is In Sight

There's good news from Campbell's Community Chest campaign chairman Ray Fish.

Wednesday noon the local quota of $3500 was within a few hundred dollars of its goal.

Last-minute donors can send or take their contributions to the Campbell Water company office where temporary headquarters were set up during October, or at The What Not shop.

While other communities reported difficulty in obtaining funds necessary to support their character building organizations, Campbell's 15 volunteer workers dried the ink on cash receipts and prepared to end their drive here.

Late returns are expected to bring the total o the 1947-48 goal by Saturday night.

Buc Lightweights Lose to Los Gatos

By Franklin Hale

The second half started with Los Gatos kicking to Campbell. The Bucs at once took to the airways only to have their pass intercepted. After three unsuccessful tries at a first down. Los Gatos punted down to the Campbell 12 yard line. Campbell went immediately into punt formation, the pass from center was fumbled, rolling into the end zone and was recovered by Los Gatos. This cost Campbell the game, for neither team scored after this.

The lightweights will next meet Mt View here at home Thursday at 3:30. While the varsity plays host to Mt. View Friday at 2:45 p. m. November 7.

Campbell Represented in England at the Royal Wedding

Among the titled and the fashionable elite of the world who will attend the November 20 wedding of the Princess Elizabeth of England will be the Prince and Princess Vasili (Romanoff). The titled pair have recently removed to Campbell, where they are "ranching it." They lived for many years at the Palace Hotel in San Francisco.

While in London the Prince and Princess are the guests of his mother, the Grand Duchess Xenia, of the old Russian monarchy. She is the sister of the late Czar Nicholas of Russia. The Grand Duchess, who is related to King George of England, fled the Bolsheviks at the time of the revolution and gained sanctuary in England. Travelling with the Prince and Princess is their small daughter, Marina, named after the Duchess of Kent. Marina was born in San Francisco about eight years ago.

The titled couple will return to their Campbell farm after the ceremony of Princess Elizabeth and Prince Philip of Greece in London.

SIGNS OF THE TIMES

By Harry Blanchard

About two weeks ago our own Judge Blaine, Justice of Campbell Township for some twenty years, and a descendant of pioneers of this district, stated his views on the incorporation of the town of Campbell.

We did not edit the Judge's story in any way. If the gist had been for, or against, the story would have appeared in print without editing. Such is our respect for an old-time resident who has had the opportunity to see all phases of our community life.

He chose for his topic the title of an essay written about ten years ago by a friend of the editor of this paper. The title was, Wake Up and Live. The judge compared the idealogy of its theme with the present day mood of Campbell. We judge from a re-reading of his column that he sincerely believes the future of our community lies in incorporation.

We do not believe that there is any person, organization or commercial venture interested in any way in retarding the progress, or in injuring the fair community in which we live. The few, and minor objections we have heard so far have not had a sufficient basis in fact to warrant serious consideration.

We have taken the pains and the time to run down all the objections we could lay our hands on and we must report that they have faded into nothingness. As an example, we heard that a gravel pit was to be put into operation on Winchester Road within the proposed boundaries of the incorporated area. After a diligent search we were unable to find anyone even remotely interested in a gravel pit. We then heard that a stove factory was to be put into operation in Campbell. That really intrigued our imagination, since anyone with business acumen enough to get a stove factory into operation in this town would surely have to be a business leader of the first water. However, after chasing this objection down we find that the "stove factory," was to be an assembly plant only. Metal castings and machining was to have been done elsewhere. No noise or smoke or any other nuisance is attendant to the assembly of the parts of a stove or a heater into its finished product. It would be a decidedly desirable industrial enterprise for Campbell, or any other town. We feel about this planned stove factory exactly as we feel about having a bank here. We need such things. It is high time for Campbell to "Wake Up and Live."

The dehydrators, the canning plants, the packing plants and all the other allied fruit industries are not able to take up the full twelve month employment period needed by people who wish to be self-sufficient in their livelihoods. The majority of our citizens want to work for their keep. Most people prefer to earn their way as they go and not have to rely on unemployment insurance to tide them over between jobs. Such a project as a stove factory, or any other light industrial enterprise would provide just such an opportunity.

A community's mental growth is precisely the same as an individual's. It is merely communal instead of individual. Deprive an individual of all chance of the exercise of hand and brain and he soon becomes an imbecile. Constantly tell a child he cannot do this thing or that thing and you find yourself with a child who will never in all his life do one constructive act. You can stifle a community in the same manner as you can a child's mind. We don't think that is the community wish of Campbell. We would so much prefer to agree with the hundreds of people who have signified their wishes by signing their names to the incorporation petitions that have been presented lately throughout Campbell.

In all sincerity we do believe that the only hope for future progress in our community is to have our own civic constitution. The time is now, and the time is right. We must "Wake Up and Lve!"

INCORPORATION PETITION FILED WITH BOARD OF SUPERVISORS

Names of 420 petitioners seeking the incorporation of Campbell were being checked yesterday by County Assessor Hayden W. Pitman.

If signatures on the petition, which was submitted to the Board of Supervisors Monday, are certified, a public hearing on the matter will be called. A similar incorporation move was defeated several months ago.

Atty. Richard W. Morton submitted the petition which was signed by Ruby P. Brown, 45 Alice Way, and others.

The new proposal for incorporation would include a larger area with an estimated population of 3250.

The proposed incorporated area would be bounded on the south by Budd and Sunny Oaks Aves. and a continuation of Casey Road; on the west by San Tomas Creek; on the north by Latimer Ave., a continuation of Hamilton Ave., and a line extending east and west across the northern extremity of P. G. Keith's subdivision No. Two; on the east by the San Jose-Los Gatos Road and Los Gatos Creek.

HISTORY OF CAMPBELL

By T. A. CUTTING

John Bidwell organized the first overland immigrant party for California in 1841. Hearing glowing accounts of the territory from fur traders, he interested several of his Missouri neighbors and eventually a company of sixty-nine hit the trail for California. Near Great Salt Lake half of them, fearful at the prospects of unknown wilds, changed their minds and continued on the well blazed trail to Oregon. The others, however, turned resolutely to the southwest. They suffered hunger, thirst, heat, cold and constant fear of Indians, but still urged on their pack animals. They succeeded in finding a pass over the mountains, discovered the Calaveras big trees, and described the Stanislaus river. When in the distance they saw the Coast Range, they considered it just another ridge that must be crossed, but to their amazed relief they suddenly found themselves at the ranch of Dr. John Marsh near Mt. Diablo.

Bidwell's first task was helping to carry property from Fort Ross, which Captain Sutter had purchased from the Russians, to Fort Sutter. While thus engaged, a Mexican told him that gold was to be found on Bear River. The day he went to investigate was hot, and moreover he found the place so infested with grizzlies that he was afraid without weapons to do much exploring. And so he turned back from what later proved to be a stream rich in gold. He surveyed many Mexican land grants, and in 1849 purchased the Rancho Chico of 22,000 acres. Still later he was chosen a member of the first state senate.

Josiah Beldon was a member of the Bidwell party. As he and his companions were crossing the Coyote creek soon after their arrival in the province, they were taken into custody by a detachment of Mexican soldiers and lodged in the pueblo juzgado. There they remained for five days until Dr. Marsh and J. A. Forbes, the English consul, arranged their release. Nine years later he became the first mayor of San Jose.

Julius Martin, enthused by the accounts of Joseph Childs who had made a trip to California in 1841, decided to go west. In 1843 his party joined an immense immigrant train that was headed for Oregon. Following the Missouri, they came to the Platte, which took them four days to cross. At Fort Laramie they found over 1000 people congregated and holding a grand ball before they pushed on along the trail to the West. Soon after this they met Captain Walker, a trapper who had discovered Walker Pass in 1833, and he agreed to guide them as soon as he could dispose of his furs at the fort. West of Fort Hall the train split up, some continuing on to Oregon, others turning off for California. Those who reached the Mountains before the snows set in urged their pack animals over the pass; but the Martins arrived too late. With Walker as guide they turned south and crossed over by the path he had discovered in 1833. Their water ran low and they had to kill one of their mules for food, but they finally came through to Soledad Mission in safety.

During the morning after the opening ceremony, two topics will be presented and discussed by the assembly. The revised Cub achievements will be presented by Thomas P. Ryan followed by group preparation of a pack meeting led by Nathan J. Citron. Basket lunch will be served at noon, Chairman Brown to be the speaker and Robert Berry in charge of fun and fellowship.

The afternoon program includes small discussion groups of cubmasters, committeemen and den mothers. Mrs. Charles Cushing and Mrs. C. H. Longuevan will be the leaders of the den mothers group and Patrick McDonald, Robert Berry and Kenneth Clark will present and demonstrate Cub Handicraft. Presentation of certificates and a summary of the day's activities will conclude the program.

To Institute Job's Daughters Here Sunday

Young women of the Campbell-Los Gatos district have joined together to form a new Bethel of the International Order of Job's Daughters. This new Bethel will be officially formed at 2 p.m. Sunday, November 9, in Odd Fellows hall, Campbell, when high ranking state officers will formally institute the order. The institution ceremony is open to parents of the girls as well as to Master Masons and members of the Order of the Eastern Star.

The same evening, at the Campbell high school gymnasium, the officers of the Bethel will be installed publicly. The first Honored Queen of Campbell Bethel will be Margaret Andrews of Los Gatos; senior princess, Patricia Ralston of Campbell, and junior princess, Beverly Jensen of Campbell. Virginia Currie, past matron of Campbell chapter No. 553, O.E.S., will be guardian, and Frank Coombs, a member of Charity lodge No. 362, F. & A. M., will be associate guardian.

Job's Daughters membership is composed of young ladies between the ages of 12 and 20 who are related to members of the Masonic Fraternity. The purpose of the order is to bind these girls together for character building through formal and spiritual development by teaching a greater reverence for God and the Holy Scriptures, loyalty to our flag and the country for which it stands, and deeper respect for parents and elders.

The advisory board is composed of 12 adults, each of whom has an important part in the guidance of the activities of the Bethel.

Tuesday Is Armistice Day

On Nov. 11, 1918 the shots of the first World War ceased flying and hope and peace returned to the world, that the next generation would grow up in a bright new world.

Today the same hope exists as we soberly commerate the memories of our dead from two great World Wars. We must have peace if we are to be civilized, if our children are to live and grow untarnished by the dread finger of fear the last generation felt all through their youth, to end in the shot and shell and atomic bombs of the last war.

Schools, shops, banks and library will be closed Tuesday as the bands play and the veterans march in parades, symbolic of the hope we have learned to live with our neighbor and give a thought to the peace of all nations while we honor our dead.

Manuel Cabral To Visit In Hawaii

Manual Cabral, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Cabral of 100 Sunnyside avenue, left Monday evening on the Hawaii bound plane for a four months visit at the Kukauii Ranch in the Hawaiian Islands.

Mr. Cabral accompanied his aunt, Mrs. Joseph Martin, and her daughter and two sons, Vivian, Raleigh and Denis Martin, who have been visiting with Mrs. Martin's mother, Mrs. Mary Carvelho at 54 Rincon avenue, for the last three months.

On Sunday evening the travelers were bid farewell by a group of relatives who gathered at the Cabral home for a barbecued dinner.

Awards Given Future Farmers

F. Spinazzo of Campbell received a pen of four fat feeder pigs at the fall Future Farmers show, November 6, sponsored by the Grand National Livestock show in San Francisco.

Future Farmers in 24 California high schools will receive pens of four feeder pigs each, purchased by San Francisco business firms and to be fed out and shown at the 1948 spring junior event sponsored by the Grand National.

The program will be a continuation of that established last year, when 20 Future Farmers each received a feeder steer. This year, however, the boy will repay to the show management at the time of the auction, one-half the purchase price of the animal. The money will be used to extend this type of activity at future shows.

No school which received one of the 20 calves in 1946 was permitted to have one of the sponsored animals or pens this year, and allocation was made on the basis of quality of showing in the 1947 spring show.

San Francisco's first fire occurred Dec. 24, 1849, when 50 buildings were destroyed with a loss of about one million dollars.

Campbell Court Notes

By Judge Blaine

This man had been arrested for drunk driving. In court defendant declared innocence and decided to stand trial, defending himself. He seemed completely sincere.

At the trial the examining doctor described tests given defendant for standing, walking a straight line, accuracy of touch, ability to speak. In all, the doctor said, there was some deviation from normal. In addition, defendant had revealed alcoholic breath. The doctor said he thought defendant should not drive.

Defendant admitted the deviations, but had other reasons for all except the alcoholic breath.

Next on the witness stand were two depuy sheriffs who had made the arrest. They testified that defendant had driven from side to side on the highway. They also said he had revealed alcoholic breath.

For this erratic driving defendant gave the reason that he was looking for somebody who might be walking on either side of the road. He seemed fully sincere about this. But again he did not deny the alcoholic breath.

In view of the law and the evidence, the judge felt obliged to find the defendant guilty, but defendant himself was not convinced. He had drunk one can of beer, he said, about five hours before being arrested.

The majority of those arrested for drunk driving plead guilty. They accept the realistic situation. It is that if you have alcoholic breath and do any sort of unusual driving that results in arrest, you are almost certain to be charged with violating California Vehicle Code Section 502.

Your breath will take you to jail. Your breath will help to convince the examining doctor that you are unfit to drive a car. And testimony about your breath will go with you to court. There your alcoholic breath will be a comment on every excuse you give for your abnormal behavior.

Wanted by those charged with drunk driving: Some logical reason for alcoholic breath other than alcohol itself.
